Our clients always come first

We provide comprehensive advice, with an innovative approach and commercial focus targeted at adding value.

We stand out for our responsive and collaborative work, partner-involvement and a team of dynamic and committed associates.

Our Practice

We provide an integral vision of the tax problem by offering a multidisciplinary approach.

We have experts in the tax area that will help to analyze a complex regulatory and economic context, identifying risks and opportunities.

We work in the prevention (previous advice) and in the containment of the tax problem (contentious defense).

We advise and assist our clients in matters related to the application of tax and customs regulations, such as:

- Defense of companies in tax claims before federal, state and local tax authorities in administrative and judicial proceedings.
- Corporate tax counseling and business tax framework at national and international level.
- Disputes against Customs in infringement proceedings, import and export value challenge proceedings, and tariff classification. Advice on foreign trade.
