Our clients always come first

We provide comprehensive advice, with an innovative approach and commercial focus targeted at adding value.

We stand out for our responsive and collaborative work, partner-involvement and a team of dynamic and committed associates.

Our Practice

We are market leaders in the energy & infrastructure sectors, providing legal advice on a wide range of complex and high-impact matters across the entire value chain, including:

- Project development to support to achieve ready-to-bid or ready-to-build status, including: land agreements and compliance with regulations (environmental matters), easements, permitting, resource assessment and audit, and environmental matters.
- Public and private tender processes (RfQ and/or RfP).
- Legal due diligence of energy projects, assets and companies on behalf of sponsors, lenders, investors, off-takers buyers, and sellers.
- Regulatory and bankability advice in financial transactions such as: project finance, corporate finance, acquisition finance, bond issuance, and in other transactional and innovative matters.
- Regulatory advice in M&A transactions involving energy-related assets or companies.
